Chapter 1: A Cultural Approach to Human Development (20 Points)

Answer each question completely. You may work in groups but each person needs to turn in their own work. Due on:___________________.

1. What approach is the book taking when discussing human development?
2. What is human development?
3. Provide two examples of globalization.
4. What is the total fertility rate for women?
5. What are the differences between a developed and developing country?
6. What are the 2 reasons why the U.S. has more people than a typical developed country?
7. List 5 things that you learned about India from the cultural focus section.
8. What is the difference between a collectivistic and individualistic culture?
9. What type of culture were you raised in? Give an example.
10. What is a traditional culture?
11. What is a majority culture?
12. What do you think is the majority culture in U.S.?
13. What does SES mean? What does it include?
14. What is natural selection? Why is this important?
15. _______________ is the line that led to modern humans.
16. What are some characteristics of a civilization?
17. What is a state?
18. What does evolutionary psychology tell us about our past?
19. What is the scientific method?
20. List the 5 steps of the scientific method.
21. What are the 4 ethical standard to consider when conducting research on human development?
22. What are the 8 types of research methods?
23. Pick 1 type of research design and give an example of the type of research you would conduct with this design.

Write down the name of the theorist next to each theory.

Psychosexual ______________________________
Ecological ______________________________
Social Learning ______________________________
Psychosocial ______________________________
Cognitive Constructivist ______________________________
Behaviorism ______________________________
Socio-Cultural ______________________________

Pick one theory from the above list and describe the theory in your own words.