Math 137 Restrictions and Special Conditions

Name: ______________________________

Student ID: ________________________

Semester: ____________  Section number: ____________________

Please read each of the following and initial in the space provided. If you have any questions you should ask your instructor before signing and enrolling in the course.

1. This course does not satisfy the AA graduation requirement. Students will need to pass the subsequent statistics course to meet the mathematics competency requirement. ________

2. This course does not meet the pre-requisite requirement to any other course except math 227 at Los Angeles Mission College. ________

3. Other colleges may not accept this course as a pre-requisite to their Statistics classes. ________

4. Some general education courses require completion of math 115 and students may not be allowed to enroll in those classes. ________

5. Attendance is mandatory and crucial to students’ success. ________

6. This course has both a technology and a writing component that are factors in the grade. ________

7. I may be photographed or video taped. I give permission for these pictures and videos to be used for training other faculty. ________

I have read and understand the above conditions.

Signature: ____________________________  Date: __________________________